- Warwick Legal Network (WLN) is an international group of commercial law firms founded in 2001, acting for clients from around the world in the areas of cross-border trade and investment. WLN members assist our clients with a wide variety of inward and outward investments, commercial contracts, mergers and acquisitions, corporate structures, company start-ups, dispute resolution, intellectual property, employment law and real estate transactions. WLN focuses on business law internationally and we have a particular strength in the mid-market.
- Clients of WLN member firms can be assured that your interests will always come first, and that your work will be handled by the right person (or team, where appropriate) at the right price. We can say this because WLN's members are typically niche, when compared to the largest firms in the global market for legal services. As such, WLN's members offer our clients access to highly experienced partners and specialist practitioners, with cross-border awareness and direct experience of being owner-managers of businesses. WLN, is a mixture of technical skills and empathy, at its core.
- WLN member firms work closely together, yet retain sufficient independence that clients can be confident, that their WLN partner will always seek and give the best local advice within the relevant jurisdictions. We do not carry heavy central administration costs and we do not pay referral fees to each other. We are flexible on pricing structures, willing to look at commercial solutions (subject of course to local Bar rules).
- WLN has member firms in 27 countries, mostly in the EU but also beyond. Comprising some 500 lawyers and professional staff, WLN's members have been growing steadily in recent years.
- WLN is ambitious to attract further members who will commit to the ethos of the network and client service standards.
